

MARCH 4, 2004

HOME & DESIGN

News of real estate,

remodeling and landscaping

Local landscapers honored for their work

A Glenview residence sited at the edge of a small lake earned top honors for landscape design and installation for Van Zelst, Inc. of Wadsworth, a landscaping design/build firm.

Van Zelst received a Gold Award for the Glenview project from the Illinois Landscape Contractors Association in its annual statewide competition. The firm also received a Silver Award for landscape maintenance of a Lake Forest residence and a Merit Award for an extensive landscape management program for a residence in Kenilworth. The ILCA awards were presented Feb. 27 at Drury Lane in Oakbrook.

Chalet Landscape Division of Wilmette received three awards for a Winnetka residential site. The Picture Perfect Lawn Award, sponsored by the Professional Lawn Care Association of America and Lawn and Landscape Magazine, recognized the work at PLCAA's annual meeting and dinner in St. Louis. The award includes a published photo and write-up in the May 2004 issue of Lawn & Landscape magazine.

The Winnetka residence also earned Chalet two Excellence in Landscape Awards from the Illinois Landscape Contractors Association.

Colorful flowers and plantings surround flagstone pathway down to a small lake in this Gold Award landscape design and installation by Van Zelst, Inc. for a residence in Glenview.

New bluestone patio overlooks the lake in Van Zelst's award winning landscape design and installation in Glenview.

The Chalet Landscape Division won the Picture Perfect Lawn Award and two ILCA Awards of Excellence for installation and maintenance of the lawn at this Winnetka residence.